HAPPY CAMPER AT SLIDE RANCH

Chickens and campers seem to be a good mix! The 2016 CAC Foundation's grant to Slide Ranch on the Marin Coast enabled a class of 25 school kids to participate in Slide Ranch's environmental education programs. Thanks to your generosity the Foundation is able to support organizations in the Tahoe Basin and the San Francisco Bay Area which are working on trail maintenance, environmental restoration, and outdoor youth activities. All donations are tax-deductible and may be sent to P.O. Box 2180, Mill Valley 94942-2180. Thank you!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Winter is here. Alpiners at Echo have been posting photos of a lodge nearly buried with the white stuff, while hikers at lower climbs report some of the sweetest music from the crashing streams and water fall on nearby trails. So it's here and time to find your own trail and enjoy the outside messages of winter reporting to the inside of you.

We're all about club here, but the real message is what's working inside you as you move outside, risk a bit, laugh a whole lot, and just be, along your way. Our Sunday Tam Hikes add much to the "clubbiness" of being inside after the outside. There's usually a warm fire and a sweet gnosh to be had in the lodge after an exhilarating hike, and ya know, wherever two or more are gathered ... the stories begin!

So what's your outdoor adventure story about this year? The travel companies are all pushing to get plans locked in ... and so it's in the air. Our Outings Team has been working on a few dates and more importantly, working on a method you can suggest an outing, a trip, a small-to biggish event to a place that you've always wanted to explore. The limiting factors around organizing such events have been 1) qualified leadership, 2) the admin to get it all together, and 3) who would come if I proposed it ... ?

Outings will streamline the process to encourage your thinking about an overnight you've wanted to do, a distant point you've never visited, or a summit you've wanted to conquer. Your job in the process will be to put together what makes sense for you and those with whom you're keen to join, put the adventure to paper (yes, there's a form involved), and get it to the Outings Team to help determine what resources are available to make your trip a reality with the club's help.

Stay tuned for the details ... we're thinking March is our launch month for this process, so begin now to outline and research your ideas ... N.B., Outings need not be designed for a large crowd ... haven't some of your best outdoor adventures been with just a few pals? Your turn, OK?

Jay Gustafson, President

YOGA-ON-THE-MOUNTAIN

Yoga-on-the-Mountain will be offered each Sunday afternoon at 4:00 at Alpine Lodge starting Feb 5 - March 26th as a pilot program sponsored by members who are trained instructors. Thanks go to Lindsay Rodgers, Jess Weiss, and Mary Cosgrove. Call 415 381 7261 for questions ... or just show up!

NEW SUNDAY HIKE LEADER COORDINATORS

Lenora Young and I have taken up the mantle to continue the excellent work Pauline and Jock MacDonald have done on behalf of the Sunday Hike Leader Coordination activity. Theirs are big shoes to fill and we hope to uphold the high standards they have set. Thank you, Pauline and Jock, for your excellent and diligent work benefitting the Alpine Club!

Lenora and I will work in tandem as a team. I will be responsible in "rounding up the members" for hike leader purposes and will communicate that information to Lenora. Lenora will provide computer support in terms of maintaining and transmitting the hike leader schedule to the Trails Publication editor on a monthly basis.

We hold you, our members, in high esteem and welcome you to actively participate in leading a Sunday hike. We need your help in keeping our Hiking Program active and viable! For some added interest, I plan to feature "Guest Hike Leaders" for a few of the slots.

If you have any comments, regarding the Hiking Program, please let Lenora and myself know by email — or give us a call: Jennie Bruyn 415-456-1877; jennielbruyn@outlook.com. Lenora Young: 310-408-8112; Lenora_young@me.com.

Thank you for your interest and input. Many happy trails,

Jennie Bruyn, Hiker Leader Coordinator

Different Hikes for Different Types: Our Weekly Tradition for Sunday Hiking Rain Cancels All Hikes!

Our 2B hikes depart from the California Alpine Club (CAC) at 9:30 a.m. These hikes are 7-10 miles long, with an elevation gain of up to 2,000 ft. When there is no leader specified for a given Sunday, the convened hikers at the CAC will decide upon their own route.

A more informal, slower paced hike – designated as 1A – will depart from the CAC at 9:45 a.m. These hikes are typically 5-6 miles long, with an elevation gain of up to 1,000 ft.

Please remember to bring a light lunch (e.g., a sandwich) and at least a liter of water. All hikers should have prior hiking experience and be able to maintain a moderate pace (i.e., approximately two miles per hour). The hikes usually finish at the CAC around 2:00 – 3:00 p.m.

Note: Hike group safety protocols prevail. If you want to hike in front of the leader, please inform the leader. If given permission, you must stop at any intersection or junction and wait for the group. You must also be within earshot in case the group is held up. If you do not follow these steps, we will no longer consider you part of the group.

If you are interested in leading a 2B hike, please contact: Jennie Bruyn at 415-456-1877 or email: jennielbruyn@outlook.com

If you are interested in leading a 1A hike, please contact: Edie Nelson: 831.331.1754

I am the Innkeeping Coordinator (recruiter & scheduler) for the Alpine Lodge Sunday Open House. We are in dire need of more volunteers to serve as Sunday innkeepers for February and March (and after that!). Please, would you consider signing up to be the Innkeeper(s) on a Sunday of your choice and selecting one of the dates shown below as OPEN - or any Sunday after that. It is a great way to spend a day at our beautiful Alpine Lodge while at the same time fulfilling a portion of your volunteer responsibilities. You need not be host trained to serve as Innkeeper(s) and I will provide you with a list of brief instructions/suggestions which outline what the Innkeepers traditionally have done. Note that this list is also currently available on our website. Also, if you don't wish to serve alone (you are a new member for example) consider serving together with another member – why not co-innkeep!

Please note that we (Helena Troy actually) update the live link in TRAILS as soon as I get a volunteer. So that may be a great place to start when considering being an innkeeper- find an OPEN date there and then contact me. Please call me to reserve a date or provide feedback (916-690-1828) or better yet, e-mail me at shober@csus.edu

Thank You! Happy Trails To You All!

Jana Shober, Innkeeping Coordinator

AS YOU CAN SEE , WE ARE IN GREAT NEED OF INNKEEPERS for the Sundays in February & March. WON'T YOU PLEASE CHECK YOUR CALENDAR NOW AND SEE IF YOU ARE ABLE TO VOLUNTEER ON ONE OF THE OPEN SUNDAYS?

CAC EVENTS AND VOLUNTEERS

Many of you offer to help with events at Alpine Lodge every year, but we would love to have help from other members and especially new members. Helping with some aspect of an event is a great way to meet people and make new friends. We always have lots of fun. The tasks are divided into groups, so that many hands can make light work.

The chart shows the major tasks for the planned events for the next few months. We need to fill these task assignments with volunteers. It is a wonderful way to help your Club and to have a fun time working with new friends. Please contact the host or the BoD Sponsor to sign up. Contact information for BoD Sponsors is on page 2. Host information can be found on the Alpine Lodge Events and Host Calendar page or on our website under Calendar.

Website at californiaalpineclub.org MEMBERS>QUICK LINKS>CAC EVENTS shows the planning for the coming 12 to 18 months. You can see the names of other people who have signed up to help since TRAILS was published.

GREETINGS CAC MEMBERS FROM OUTINGS CHAIRPERSON, RENEE HAMILTON

In the upcoming Trails, you will see that your Outings committee is hard at work putting together another exciting year of outdoor adventures with weekend car camping, a base camp in the Sierras, a possible river raft trip and a summer backpack that leads to our own Echo Lodge.

I would like to toss out an action-packed idea, climbing Mt. Shasta. With winter storms bringing record snowfall to our mountains, Mt. Shasta is currently blanketed with a snow pack that is 197% above normal...and it's only January! This will be an ideal year to climb Mt. Shasta, with enough snow to extend the climbing season and still avoid climbing in loose exposed scree. I want to put together a small group to climb the West Face route to the summit. This is a spectacular 3-day route that is appropriate for both first-time and experienced climbers.

Mt. Shasta, continued on page 8

ALPINE CLUB HOST TRAINING

The Alpine Lodge trustees held their Alpine Club Fall Host Training event on November 11th and 12th this year, and it was a great success! We had 22 participants and leaders, including our Club president, Jay Gustavson. We met on Friday afternoon and started the event with getting room assignments and lugging stuff to each assigned room.

Tom Coleman started off the training with a detailed history of the CAC. Fascinating, going back over 100 years, and all the leaders that we have been lucky enough to have! We then had free time for the rest of the evening. A lovely dinner and dessert were provided, and the trustees also contributed some very nice wine from Cline Winery. Yum!

The breakfast bell rang promptly at 8am. Our bell ringers and table setters were Josh and Zoe Goldman and Viola Mikulik. Thank you to these wonderful young folks!

We did a walk about throughout both the Lodge and the Tam building, showing new hosts how pilots work, how music systems work, how thermostats work...and after 3 hours of 'show and explain', our hosts were really hungry and really ready for a nap!

But alas, there was to be no nap. A lunch of salad, grilled cheese sandwiches and left-over pumpkin pie revived the crew just enough that they were able to attend a lecture presented by Donata Mikulik, Alpine trustee, on all the paperwork that they would have to know and understand in order to host properly. Donata was ably aided by new trustee Wendi Olmstead. Thank you, Wendi, for offering to help the Alpine Lodge as a trustee.

The host training event ended around 3pm on Saturday. Some of the new hosts ended up staying at the Lodge that night, knowing they now had the knowledge to actually run an event. Thank you to all those who have volunteered to learn how to become hosts. You enable the CAC and the Alpine Club to carry on successfully into the future.

Tom Coleman, Alpine Trustee

SPARKLING LIGHTS AND HAPPY KIDS!

Despite rainy weather outside, the Children's Christmas Party on December 10 was a merry and bright beginning to the holiday season for the families lucky enough to be there. More than 30 kids came that afternoon to play in the festively decorated hall with balloon toys created by the Elf-Lady. All were happy to sing and dance to Music Man Tim Cain's holiday carols and special songs. Even some grown-ups fell under guitar-player Tim's magic spell and danced with the kids!

When jingling sleigh bells signaled that Santa and his gift-laden sacks had finally arrived, the kids ran to greet that jolly old elf. As he pulled parcels from his red sacks, Santa (Tom Coleman) assured the kids that more presents would arrive for them on Christmas itself! For the kids, it was a perfect ending to CAC's annual children's party at Alpine Lodge. All those who came to enjoy our holiday celebration helped make it a success.

Thanks to everyone who worked on preparations and cleanup. Mary Jane McKown's festive name tags ensured Santa (Tom Coleman) could talk with each child by name. Cindy Whitehead made certain all dishes were washed and the kitchen cleaned after the party. Everyone who stayed to help was very generous in giving time and energy to the clean-up.

Without the sponsorship of the CAC BoD and the Alpine Lodge Trustees, this special party could not happen each year. Thank you, Trustees and Board, for supporting the annual Children's Christmas Party. Well done!

Hope to see another fun party for the kids next December.

Mary Frey & Ann Meneguzzi, Your Party Hosts

2017 OUTINGS IN THE WORKS

The Outings Committee has been hard at work planning exciting opportunities for members (and potential members!) to experience the endless natural beauty that surrounds us here in the Bay Area.

2017 started with a terrific turnout (32 members and friends) January 14 for lunch in downtown San Francisco and an excursion through Yerba Buena Center for the Arts, followed by a CAC Group tour of the Fisher Collection at the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art (SFMOMA), organized by Vicki Olds. Look for pictures and tales of their adventure in the March Trails.

April 7-9, Ernie Castiaux will lead a 3-day/2 night car camping & hiking trip to Pinnacles National Park, timed to enjoy the magnificent Spring wildflowers that blanket the park at this time of year. Ernie's hikes are rated 2+C, slightly more challenging than the Sunday Alpine Lodge hikes. To register for this trip, contact Ernie at ecastiaux@hotmail.com.

Sandy Borden has offered to organize a half-day river raft trip on the East Fork of the Carson River, Cave Rock to Hangman's Bridge. The East Fork Carson is free-flowing, not dam controlled, so picking a date will be based on weather and snow melt, probably sometime in May. Look for a description and prices in the April Trails. If we're lucky, we'll tie the river trip into a stop at Echo Lodge, depending on availability when the river levels are right for a trip.

Sandy Borden will also lead a three-day backpack trip from Big Meadow to Echo Summit Lodge, July 22-24. Approximately 20 miles start to finish, the route leads through meadows, along creeks and into dense stands of pine, fir and aspen. As we'll be hiking to almost 9000 feet elevation, it's a good idea to go early and acclimate before you start the trek. Why not attend Mary Cahill's Wildflower Event at Echo Summit (July 16-22) and then join Sandy at the trailhead? The backpack trip is free, and there will be an opportunity to rest up at Echo for a night before heading home (standard rates apply). Look for more information in the March Trails.

Steven Smith will lead an August base camp trip with mules to carry your camping gear. Destination and dates to be determined. Stay tuned!

And finally, we are hoping to put together a trip to Oregon to experience the total solar eclipse on August 21st. Group sites near Madras, Oregon have all been reserved by the Oregon Parks Service for their own events. However, some of the first come/first served sites will be opened for reservations at some point in the future (date unknown at this writing). If any club members have connections to help us reserve some of these first-come/first served campgrounds, please contact Renee Hamilton at renee@fallbrook.net or 415.686.3966. With a once-in-a-lifetime event such as this, we need all the help we can get!

We are working on more outings to engage and thrill our membership, friends and potential members. We are always looking for volunteers with good ideas for destinations. If you don't want take on the challenge of being the sole leader, we can find someone to help with logistics. Please contact Renee Hamilton (renee@fallbrook.net ; 415.686.3966) if you would like to lead, co-lead or support an outing.

Mt. Shasta, continued from page 5

Here is a description from the Shasta Mountain Guides website:

This route is an excellent climb for mountaineers looking for a moderate, less visited climb to Shasta's summit. Our base camp in Hidden Valley 9,200 ft. is spectacular and well positioned for the summit push. A beautiful, more remote climb for those seeking a true Wilderness experience. Comparable technical challenge to Avalanche Gulch and ideal for new and experienced climbers.

Our climb would be late June or early July, depending on availability of dates. The cost would depend on the number of climbers. At this point, I would simply like to know if you would be seriously interested in making this climb. A couple of things that might help you decide one way or the other:

Previous mountaineering experience is not required, but you MUST be in excellent physical condition. If you're not in peak condition now, there is time, and there are resources to learn how to train for a climb. We could even plan some increasingly challenging weekend training hikes to support each other in achieving our goal!

Most of the technical equipment needed for the climb can be rented. I will share the equipment list with anyone who requests it.

We would travel with Shasta Mountain Guides, Mt. Shasta's oldest and most respected outfitter.

The cost for the outfitter would be in the range of $745, depending on the size of the group.

Once we commit as a group, we are committed. A 50% non-refundable deposit is required to reserve the dates. So now's the time to think about it and ask questions.

So what say you? Have you always harbored a secret dream to scale that big, glorious mountain but didn't know anyone crazy enough to join you? Would you like to challenge yourself to climb one of California's highest, most beautiful peaks in the company of your fellow CAC members? If so, please email me at: renee@fallbrook.net. At this point, I'm just trying to gauge your interest in this sort of adventure. If enough of you let me know you would seriously consider climbing this year, I will put together a trip with firm dates and cost, at which point you can make your decision to join this once-in-a-lifetime adventure.

I do look forward to hearing from you! Onward and upward!

THANKSGIVING DINNER

The Thanksgiving Day celebration at Alpine Lodge was a great success. Thirty-six enthusiastic members and guests gathered for the annual event that was planned, organized, and presented by Eva Libien and Tony Smith.

Young families, teens, and children joined the older, regular members to make an intergenerational and congenial group. Out eight-year-old youngest guest appropriately delivered the pre-meal blessing. Then we ate. The food was great: plentiful, hot, and delicious.

During dessert we toasted the large donation that was given to the club by John Watts, husband of deceased member Joan Casey. The donation is to be used to erect a memorial bench by the front door. The plaque on the bench will be inscribed with a quote from John Muir, "Go to the mountains and receive their good tidings".

This article would be too long if we listed the many volunteers. Gratitude is due them all for making this event such a success. We volunteers want to thank Eva Libien and Tony Smith for all their hard work in hosting this event.
