

Membership Expectations

CAC lodges are maintained and operated by the membership. In order to keep our low, co-op prices, members are expected to contribute to Club operations at least once a year.

Ways to satisfy your annual work obligation

- Attend an Alpine Work Party. They are usually held on Saturdays. A hearty lunch is provided.
- Or, attend Echo Summit Lodge's bi-annual, multi-day "fun and work" parties. See Echo Work Party. These events are free of charge, and provide great food and good fun.
- Coordinate a major event at Alpine Lodge.
- Host at Echo Lodge.
- Cook a large dinner at either lodge.
- Coordinate the cleanup for events at Alpine Lodge.
- Edit our TRAILS newsletter.
- Edit a page on our website.
- Proofread CAC documents.
- Serve in a leadership position.
- Serve on a committee.
 - Membership
 - Finance
 - Publications
 - Social Activities
 - Nominating
 - Awards
 - Website
 - Outings
- Organize a wilderness hike or camp-out.
- Organize a trip or other outing.

There are many ways that you can help support our Club. Be creative and volunteer where you see a need.